

RESPONSIBILITY STATEMENT

All tour prices are quoted on the monetary rates of exchange and tariffs in effect when the tour is first announced. These may be subject to change at any time and any increases will be passed on to the participant.

All itineraries, travel arrangements, hotel accommodations, etc. are subject to change, alteration or cancellation. If any major changes or cancellations to the agreed upon itinerary should occur while on the tour, other than any requested by the tour leader, the tour leader will endeavour to seek a refund for that portion, which will be passed on to participants if recovered.

FRIENDS OF THE MUSEUMS SINGAPORE further reserves the right to cancel any advertised tour at any time should circumstances warrant, whether or not a full refund is possible.

During the course of the tour, any participant may voluntarily withdraw from any meal, event or activity. No refund will be made for any such withdrawal.

To ensure that all members enjoy a congenial tour, FRIENDS OF THE MUSEUMS SINGAPORE reserves the right in its absolute discretion to decline to accept or retain any person as participant should such person's health, physical or mental condition, or general deportment impede the operation of the tour or the rights, welfare, or enjoyment of the other tour participants.

If at any time during the tour, the tour leader deems an individual's act or conduct detrimental or incompatible with the interest, harmony, comfort, welfare, safety and security of the tour as a whole, FRIENDS OF THE MUSEUMS SINGAPORE reserves the right in its absolute discretion to require that individual to withdraw from the tour. A refund of any monies recovered from the agent covering the unfinished part of the tour will be made upon return of the group and reconciliation of the costs by the tour leader. FRIENDS OF THE MUSEUMS SINGAPORE will accept no further obligation or liability beyond this refund.

Some Personal Travel Insurance is included in the tour price. Your Tour Leader can provide details. However, each participant may procure their own additional insurance for the full duration of the tour to cover injury, illness, emergency medical evacuation, death, repatriation, loss of property, cancellation and curtailment.

For cancellation by a tour participant FRIENDS OF THE MUSEUMS SINGAPORE will apply the following non-refundable administration charge irrespective of whether a replacement is found or not:

- S$ 50 per person for a cancellation by any member with a confirmed place on the tour within 2 days after the first meeting.
- S$ 100 per person for cancellation after 2 days of the first meeting. There may also be additional penalties from the travel agency and/or airline ticketing agency that the cancelling participant may have to pay.

If a cancellation takes place and no replacement is found and the individual cost rise because the overall costs have to be distributed to a smaller number of participants, FOM reserves the right to impose a penalty on the canceling member to recover the difference in price.

By signing the Release Form overleaf, tour participants indicate that they agree with the terms and conditions herein set forth.
